

Cornice Nr. 154 “Large Acanthus”

Another large cornice, a large leaf enriched pattern.

Naturally this is suitable for areas with higher ceilings, preferably more simple ceiling plans as complex layouts can be difficult for installation.

If this is larger than you require, there are numerous other leaf cornice designs to choose from.

This pattern is used in both commercial and domestic applications.. Kitchens, grand lounges, restaurants - so many possibilities to consider, please do use your imagination, it really be worth it.

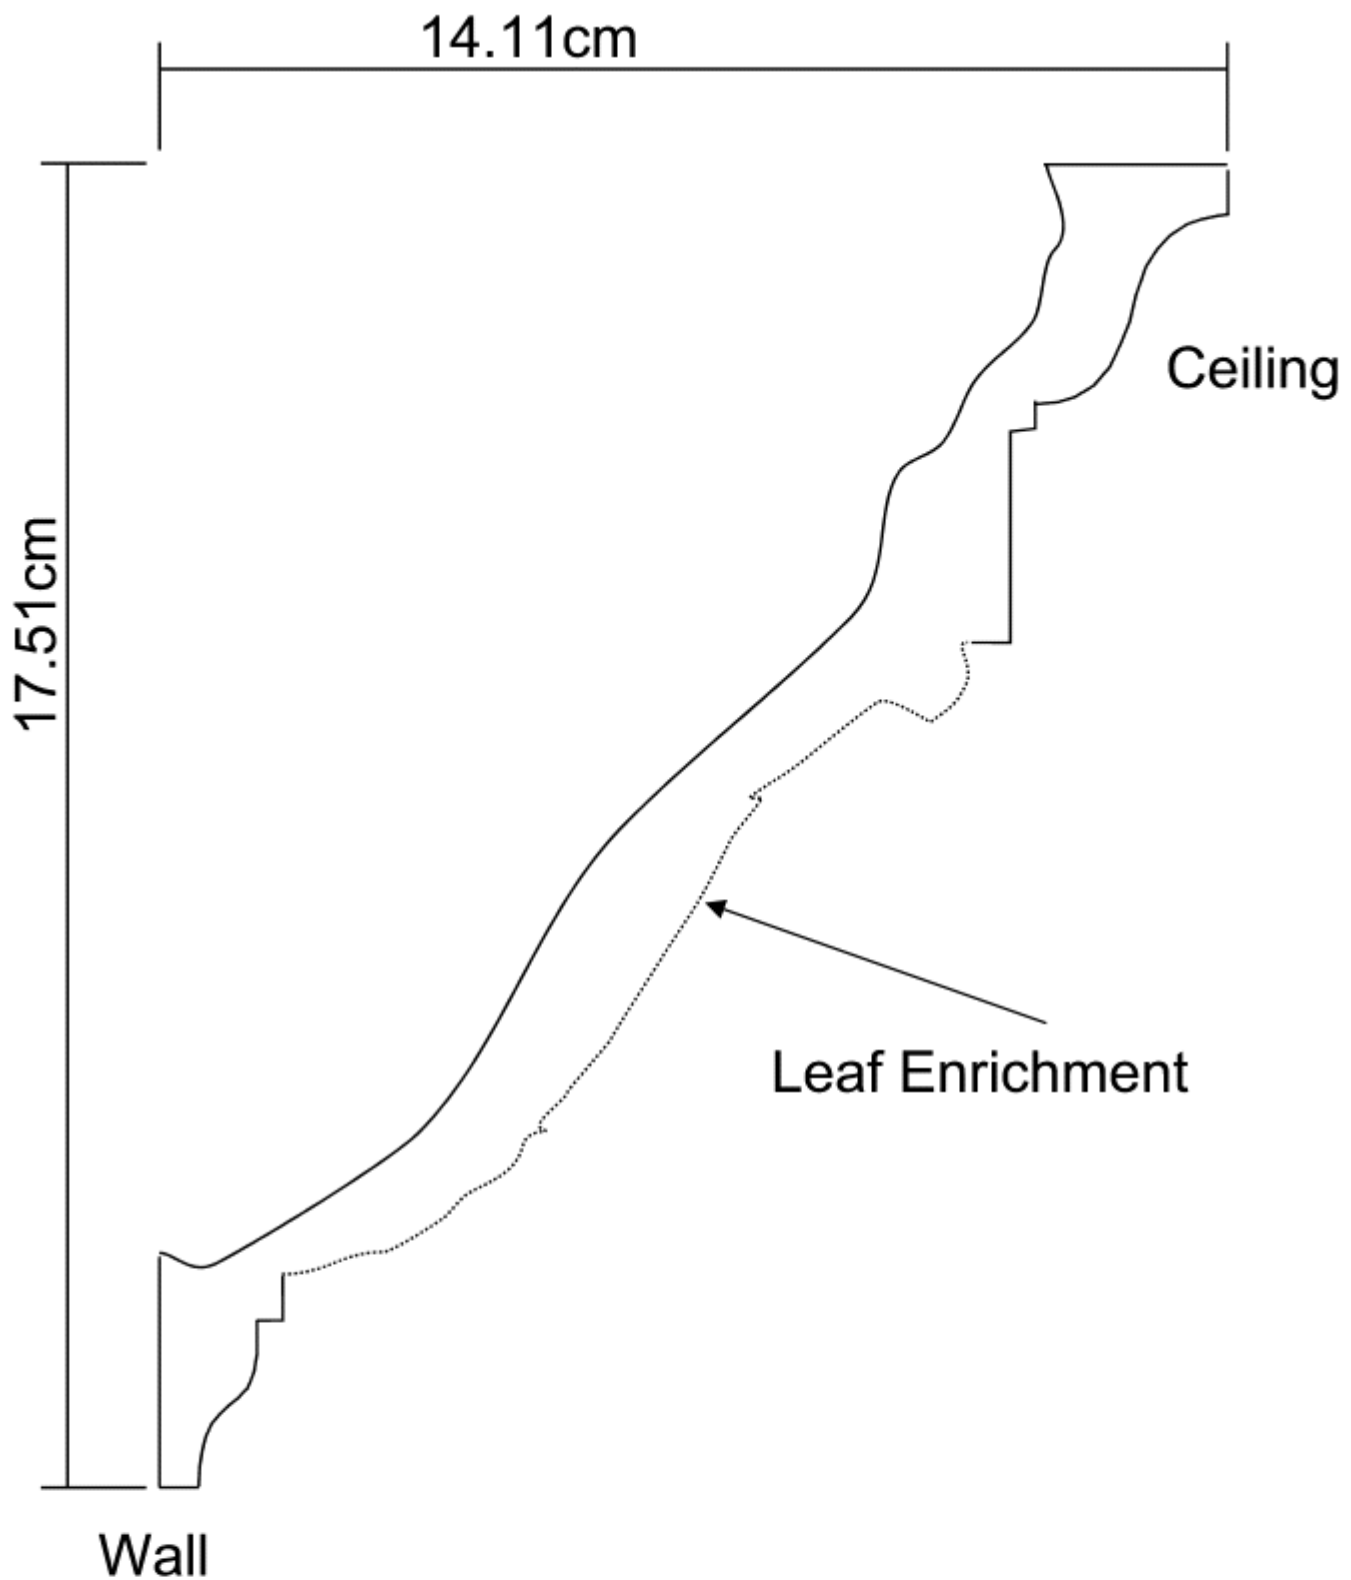

A cross section appears on page two of this document.
